Tickets

16. You must purchase a ticket online @ <https://bustickets.gre.ac.uk>.
17. All tickets are valid for 365 days from purchase. Unused tickets are not refundable.
18. You must use your ticket to book your journey(s) in advance for the required service date(s) and time(s). Journeys may be booked up to the departure times subject to availability. 'Walk-on' tickets are not available – you must book ahead.
19. The same ticket cannot be used to book multiple journeys in advance on the same day in the same direction, either for the same service time or for different service times. Travelling with others on the same ticket is therefore prohibited.

20. Booking a journey reserves a space on the coach in any seat for that service and departure time. Do not expect to be able to use the booking at another time. In the event of a vehicle failure and a smaller capacity vehicle having to be used there is no absolute guarantee of travel at the booked time but we will make every reasonable effort to transfer you onto another scheduled bus.
21. If you are unable to book your required service e.g. because it is already fully booked, space may become available later or you may need to travel at a less preferable time. Failed bookings are recorded and monitored.
22. You can cancel your booking without charge up to the planned service departure time. Any booked journey not cancelled prior to the planned departure time will result in the ticket being debited from your account as if you had travelled. Cancelled bookings can be reused for other times and dates within the ticket expiry period.
23. At the point of boarding the relevant ticket must be displayed on your mobile phone or printed out and shown to the driver. The driver will scan the QR code, and if accepted the ticket will be debited from your account.
24. You will not be permitted to travel on board until a valid booked ticket has been scanned by the driver.
25. If you are found to deliberately evade the fare, you may be barred from using the service in future.
